

APPEALS TO MR. HANNA.

The Colored Republicans of Louisiana Protests Against The Warmouth Policy and Withdraw Their Indorsement.

Hon. Marcus A. Hanna, Chairman National Republican Committee, Chicago, Ill., Dear Sir:—The condition of the republican party in Louisiana is so changed since I advised my colored republican friends from Donaldson-ville, La., on the 10th day of June, 1900, to petition you and the members of the late National Republican Committee, begging your honorable body to give recognition to the delegation headed by the Hon. H. Clay Warmoth.
As representing the only true, able and effective and aggressive republican organization in the state of Louisiana, we told you that you would be told by the Wimberly people that the people represented by the Warmoth delegation are drawing the color line in the party.
This, we said, was a subterfuge intended to mislead the National organization. We further stated that it did not deceive the honest Negro republicans of Louisiana, and we felt sure that it would not deceive nor could it mislead you. We further stated as colored men representing the best element of our race, we boldly asserted to you that we nor the thousands we represent have found any occasion to complain because of any disposition to draw the color line in the ranks of the new blood which is being infused into the party.
We said to you for the sake of the future of the party in this state, accord representation in the National Committee, to the delegation headed by H. Clay Warmouth.

This, my dear sir, is to inform you that we have been most shamefully deceived. The honest republican Negroes of Louisiana have been misled.
He is not the least represented in the New Republican organization. He is told today in plain words, that it was not intended for him to affiliate with the new party, his vote is all which will be required, that being a fact I doubt that it will be acquired.

Since I was one of the first in lending my aid and support in advising the recognition of those people. I deem it my duty to be one of the first to inform you that the present plan of organization will prove disastrous. It is by far worse than the old. If this is the new plan, or one of the new principles to be injected in the party of Lincoln and Grant, the Negro will have nothing to do with it. I think it will be to his best interest to be a democrat.
I cannot lead myself to believe that the policy is greater than the principle.
I have been a republican all my days and I am forced for the sake of my future, that of my children's and my race to condemn that new organization to brand it as untrue, desiring to rob the old party of one of its cardinal principles.

The warning is timely and just.

I am yours respectfully,

P. L. CARMOSHE.

Down in Virginia.

Messrs. Allen L. Deans, Will Isbel and Edgar E. Ricks have returned to the city after spending a pleasant and profitable time with Mr. Charles Deans, at Portsmouth, Va. Owing to the popularity of Mr. Al. Deans, the young men were the recipients of numerous invitations, and were out each afternoon and evening during their stay in Virginia. They visited Hampton, Atlantic City, Buckroe Beach, Norfolk, Fort Monroe and Newport New. They are delighted at the progress of the young colored men at the latter place, having a number of lawyers, doctors, merchants and real estate agents. Mr J. Thomas Newsome, a graduate of Howard University Law Department is one of the most prosperous young men of the place. Mr. E. E. Ricks and his mother and his mother are now spending a few days at Opequon, in the mountains of Virginia and are stopping at the Tokus Cottage.

THE SEASHORE MEWS.

The Social Life at Rhode Island's Ideal Summer Resorts.

Naragansett Pier, R. I., Special—
The season at the Pier is about over and the conversation generally starts with, "when do you leave?" It seems strange this beautiful place should be deserted so soon, when, in fact, September is its most ideal month. Those who are here from Washington seem to appreciate this, and are generally among the last to leave. It is not until duty and they must obey that they Narra-gansett's summer girl until next season.
Most of the young men are contemplating a short sojourn at some other place before reaching home.

Mr. Benjamin Washington intends visiting his brother William Washington in Boston; Mr. John White is to spend a few days with Mr. Charlie Johnson in New Haven; Mr. Sumner Taylor goes to York, Pennsylvania; Mr. James Payne is to visit friends in New York; Mr. Charles Maston meets his wife in New York and they will return to Washington in a few days; Mr. Clarence Wormly, Butcher, Gaskins and Harris will make short stops in the cities of Philadelphia, and New York; Mr. Lawrence Bradley left the Pier August 28th for an extended tour through the New England States. The literary met Wednesday the 19th for the last time this season; some interesting papers have been prepared and read, the most interesting one perhaps, being, "What the Church has done and is doing today for civilization," by Andrew Black. This young man who is a post graduate of Howard Law School, is one who has a bright future as evidenced by his character, intellectual ability, independence of thought and sound judgment. There are many others at the Pier from Washington, but instead of hearing of the others they will be sooner seen. Dr. Charles Tignor has had quite a practice here this summer. Many of his nights have been interrupted by his patients who felt that only the Doctor would do. He leaves all patients doing well.

The Business Convention at Boston had more than one hundred and fifty delegates. Our city was honored by the presence of Messrs. E. E. Cooper, A. F.
Hilyer and D. B. McCary, all of whom received high recognition. Mr. Cooper in being secretary, Mr. McCary in being one of the vice presidents and Mr.
A. F. Hilyer's paper has been editorially commended by the Star. Judging from the character of the attendance the convention will do much to stimulate business enterprises among our people throughout the country.—The Daily Record.

Prof. C. H. Barnett of Huntington, of the week.
